

London's Creative Technology Ecosystem

London's creative industries contribute more than £10 million every hour to the UK economy.

Creative Industries are a priority sector in both the UK Industrial Strategy and the London Growth Plan.

Over 950 content and media technology companies are building London's future of creative innovation.

London is home to 4,500+ production companies and 1,700+ post-production and VFX businesses.

Almost 50% of the UK's creative workforce is based in London.

London is home to Europe's largest games workforce, supporting a UK market worth £5.37bn.

£5.8bn in inward investment through international film and high-end TV productions in 2025.